

State Advisory Council for Gifted and Talented Education

On June 22, 2017, Governor Matt Bevin appointed the following members to the State Advisory Council for Gifted and Talented Education after establishing council by Executive Order on June 16, 2017.

Name	Expertise/Representation	Term Expires
Julia Link Roberts, Bowling Green	Professor at Western Kentucky University  Represents members of a public postsecondary institution	June 30, 2019
Brandy Carol Daniels, Somerset	Pulaski County Board of Education member  Represents parents of a gifted or talented child	June 30, 2019
Michael Edwin Marshall, Georgetown	Teacher at Scott County High School  Represents science, math, or technology teachers	June 30, 2019
Monica Nicole Lewis, Versailles	Guidance counselor at Woodford County High School  Represents school counselors	June 30, 2019
Carla Tipton Pleasant, Lexington	Program facilitator for Fayette County Public Schools  Represents middle or secondary school teachers	June 30, 2020
Joe Percefull, Crestwood	Gifted and talented educational services coordinator for Oldham County Schools  Represents gifted and talented program coordinators	June 30, 2020
John Taylor Thompson, Georgetown	Professor at Georgetown College  Represents members of a private postsecondary institution	June 30, 2020
Dianne Burns Mackey, Utica	Small business owner  Represents members at-large	June 30, 2020
Lindsay Webb Oliver, Lancaster	Kindergarten teacher at Paint Lick Elementary School  Represents elementary school teachers	June 30, 2021
Kimberly Breeding Lake, Verona	Director of academics and student services at Walton-Verona Independent Schools  Represents superintendents or district assessment coordinators	June 30, 2021
Diana Kozar, Union	Middle school teacher at Gray Middle School Represents arts and humanities teachers	June 30, 2021.